Town Marshal's Badge.

The following correspondence is self-explanatory.

FLAGSTAFF, July 14, 1900.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the Town of Flagstaff, Arizona.—Gentleman: Since the incorporation of the Town of Flagstaff, your marshal has worn a silver shield badge engraved, City Marshal, which was a present to me in 1880 by our pioneer friends J. H. Breed and F. C. Demorest of Winslow, Arizona. As a token of my appreciation and friendship for the town and its people I desire to present this badge to the town of Flagstaff for the use of its Marshal in the numberless years of peace and prosperity which the future holds in store for its credit. Very respectfully,

L. S. DRUM

FLAGSTAFF, July 14, 1900.

Mr. L. S. Drum—My dear Sir: On behalf of the Common Council and the Town of Flagstaff, I accept with thanks your token of friendship and kindly interest, and trust that this shield of coin silver may ever prove an inspiration of justice and duty to its wearer, and when the frosts of four score winters have silvered your still flowing locks you may find this badge on the breast of the successor to a line of honorable, faithful officers in a city which is then as now the model city of Arizona.—Very sincerely yours.

E. S. GOSNEY, Acting Mayor.
